AHIP Statement on Senator Baucus' Health Care Reform Proposal

Washington, DC – Karen Ignagni, President and CEO of America's Health Insurance Plans (AHIP), today issued the following statement in response to the new health care reform proposal released by U.S. Senator Max Baucus:

“Now is the time for health care reform. We commend Senator Baucus for putting forth a comprehensive reform proposal that addresses the key health care challenges facing the nation. We look forward to reading the plan and participating in the discussion to ensure all Americans have access to high-quality, affordable health care coverage.”
