Joint Statement By Senators Baucus, Breaux, Lincoln and Snowe On House Child Tax Credit Vote

(Washington, D.C.) – Following is a joint statement by Senators Max Baucus (D-MT), John Breaux (D- LA), Blanche Lincoln (D- AR), and Olympia Snowe (R-ME), in response to action taken today by the House of Representatives on the Child Tax Credit Bill.

“We will insist that any conference report on the child credit legislation comply with the Budget Act’s requirement that it not increase the deficit. The Senate has already passed, by a vote of 94-2, bipartisan legislation to provide needed child tax credit relief. The White House has called on the House to pass the Senate bill. We believe the Senate bill is right solution to this problem,” the Senators said.
