

To who ever cares.

So often it seems that our representatives in Government have committed themselves to a position and have become deaf to their constituents.

The economy and more importantly me and the millions of other who are that economy need consideration in your decisions.

Our industry the paper, pulp and logging industry is experiencing quite a difficult time right now.

Now is not the time to burden that industry further.

Thank You,

Jimmy Chamblin