

As it currently stands, the tax credit offers significant benefits to our industry for using black liquor as an alternative fuel source. The proposed legislation could mean serious consequences for an already struggling paper industry. Keep this tax credit on the books!

Laura Crain
Temple-Inland