

Dear Senators

I have been making my living for over 28 yrs, at Temple Inland in the forest industry. The USA should be proud like me that our industry is a user of renewable energy. Our industry and the health of other industry that use fuels mixture tax credit or change the eligibility of the credit could and would jeopardize the good paying green Jobs it provides.

I urge you not to revoke this important tax credit.

Sincerely

Ron Hodge