

At a time when billions are thrown at the auto companies and still they are on shaky ground it would behoove us all to continue, in any way, to support an industry that has stood alone for so many years, longer than there has even been automobiles let alone auto companies. Please support the continuation of this program or some version of it, especially in light of the Canadian governments effort to enact similar tax credits.