

I support the elimination of this credit. This is not what the bill was intended to do. This money is being used by some companies to apply predatory paper pricing to put competitors out of business.