

CHUCK GRASSLEY, IOWA, CHAIRMAN

MIKE CRAPO, IDAHO
PAT ROBERTS, KANSAS
MICHAEL B. ENZI, WYOMING
JOHN CORNYN, TEXAS
JOHN THUNE, SOUTH DAKOTA
RICHARD BURR, NORTH CAROLINA
JOHNNY ISAKSON, GEORGIA
ROB PORTMAN, OHIO
PATRICK J. TOOMEY, PENNSYLVANIA
TIM SCOTT, SOUTH CAROLINA
BILL CASSIDY, LOUISIANA
JAMES LANKFORD, OKLAHOMA
STEVE DAINES, MONTANA
TODD YOUNG, INDIANA

RON WYDEN, OREGON
DEBBIE STABENOW, MICHIGAN
MARIA CANTWELL, WASHINGTON
ROBERT MENENDEZ, NEW JERSEY
THOMAS R. CARPER, DELAWARE
BENJAMIN L. CARDIN, MARYLAND
SHERROD BROWN, OHIO
MICHAEL F. BENNET, COLORADO
ROBERT P. CASEY, JR., PENNSYLVANIA
MARK R. WARNER, VIRGINIA
SHELDON WHITEHOUSE, RHODE ISLAND
MAGGIE HASSAN, NEW HAMPSHIRE
CATHERINE CORTEZ MASTO, NEVADA

United States Senate

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

WASHINGTON, DC 20510-6200

KOLAN DAVIS, STAFF DIRECTOR AND CHIEF COUNSEL
JOSHUA SHEINKMAN, DEMOCRATIC STAFF DIRECTOR

May 3, 2019

Revan McQueen
Chief Executive Officer
Ackerman McQueen
1601 Northwest Expressway, STE 1100
Oklahoma City, OK 73118

Dear Mr. McQueen:

We are writing to request information related to public statements retired Lieutenant Colonel and former National Rifle Association President Oliver North recently made alleging financial improprieties at the NRA that could jeopardize the organization's nonprofit status. As the CEO of the NRA's largest vendor and the company—according to NRA Chief Executive Wayne LaPierre—that authored documents detailing those allegations, we believe you are uniquely suited to shed light on any potential illegal activity within the organization.

On April 26, 2019, the New York Times reported that Col. North sought Mr. LaPierre's resignation from the NRA over allegations of financial misconduct.<sup>1</sup> In an April 25, 2019 letter addressed to the NRA Board, Mr. LaPierre claimed that your firm, Ackerman McQueen (Ackerman), drafted and was prepared to release a letter detailing "a devastating account" of the NRA's financial status:

"Yesterday (April 24, 2019) at approximately 2:58 p.m. EST, Col. North placed a telephone call to Millie Hallow, one of my most senior staff members. Millie returned the call and took notes, the substance of which appears below.

Col. North stated that the purpose of the call was to relay the contents of a letter drafted by AM [Ackerman McQueen]. According to Col. North, he had been advised by Dan Boren—a member of our Board and an employee of AM's client—that unless I resigned as the Executive Vice President of the Association, Ackerman would transmit this allegedly damaging letter to the entire NRA Board. According to Col. North, the letter was "bad" for me, two other members of my executive team, and the Association.

I believe the purpose of the letter was to humiliate me, discredit our Association, and raise appearances of impropriety that hurt our members and the Second Amendment. The letter would contain a devastating account of our financial status, sexual harassment charges against a staff member, accusations of wardrobe expenses and excessive staff travel expenses."<sup>2</sup>

The NRA has claimed in a suit that Ackerman is in possession of detailed financial records that could further elucidate these allegations and an Ackerman spokeswoman has claimed that your firm has already submitted to at least one internal forensic audit.<sup>3</sup> The Senate Finance Committee is charged with administration of matters relating to taxation, including oversight of tax-exempt organizations. Therefore, we request you provide the following:

<sup>1</sup> New York Times, Insurgents Seek to Oust Wayne LaPierre in N.R.A. Power Struggle, April 26, 2019; www.nytimes.com/2019/04/26/business/nra-wayne-lapierre-oliver-north.html

<sup>2</sup> Wayne LaPierre letter to the NRA Board, April 25, 2019; <https://assets.documentcloud.org/documents/5979828/Wayne-LaPierre-NRA-board-letter.pdf>

1. A copy of the letter Mr. LaPierre alleges your firm to have authored and any evidence in support of the allegations contained within that letter.
2. Any other materials Ackerman prepared or contributed to for Col. North to provide to the NRA Board of Directors or the NRA Executive Committee related to allegations of financial misconduct or the organization's nonprofit status.
3. Any internal or third party audits, reviews, or investigations conducted by or for the NRA or Ackerman.

Requested materials and any materials reasonably related to the requested materials should not be destroyed, altered, or otherwise made inaccessible to the Committee. Please provide these materials no later than May 16, 2019. If you have any questions regarding this request, please contact Finance Committee Democratic staff at (202) 224-4515.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

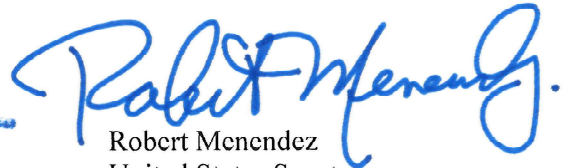

Sincerely,

Ron Wyden
Ranking Member

Sheldon Whitehouse
United States Senator

Robert Menendez
United States Senator

---

<sup>3</sup> Wall Street Journal, NRA Files Suit Against Ad Agency in Rift With Key Partner, April 15, 2019; www.wsj.com/articles/nra-files-suit-against-ad-agency-in-rift-with-key-partner-11555320601