RESPONSIBILITY FOR PLACEMENT AND FOSTER CARE OF DEPENDENT CHILDREN

Page No. in hearings	Name of witness and association represented	Comments
562	Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare-----	Favors original provision, which allows local public agency, under supervision of State agency, to provide for placement and care of foster children.
413	Hon. John F. Baldwin, Member U.S. House of Representatives (California).	Offers amendment (not in original bill) which would allow State to receive Federal matching if placement and care of the child is under the supervision (pursuant to State law) of a local public agency other than the welfare agency as long as the welfare agency can make the determination of need.
602	Wilbur J. Cohen, Assistant Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.	Concerned with the Baldwin amendment as it relates to responsibilities of State welfare departments for administration of ADC program. Independent nature of judicial process may pose difficulties in developing relationships between juvenile courts and State welfare departments which would not weaken the responsibility the welfare department must maintain in relation to children receiving ADC. Believes Mr. Wedemeyer [State welfare administrator] has made suggestions which offer the basis for the development of an arrangement satisfactory to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. Believes problem "can be satisfactorily handled without the need for Federal legislation."
414	Hon. Thomas H. Kuchel, Member U.S. Senate....	Supports amendment offered by Representative Baldwin.
549	Joseph H. Reid, Child Welfare League of America.	Opposed to amendment offered by Representative Baldwin.

559	Hilton H. McCabe, Judge of Superior Court of California.	Do.
560	Mrs. Lee Cabell Johnson, San Diego, Calif.-----	Do.
593	Kentucky Department of Child Welfare.....	No provision should require that such homes be supervised by or such placements made by the agency also responsible for the administration or supervision of the ADC program.
582	National Association on Service to Unmarried Parents.	Opposed to amendment offered by Representative Baldwin.
