June 22, 1993—Reported to Senate by Mr. Sasser with no written report.

June 23, 1993—Senate began consideration taking action on amendments (under Finance Committee jurisdiction) as follows:

Rejected:

Mitchell/Bumpers Amendment No. 502, to establish a 50-percent exclusion for gain from certain small business stock.

June 25, 1993—Senate incorporated this measure in H.R. 2264 as an amendment.

June 25, 1993—Senate passed companion measure H.R. 2264 in lieu of this measure after taking action on amendments under Finance Committee jurisdiction proposed thereto, as follows:

Adopted:

Mitchell Amendment No. 507, to increase the capital equipment expensing allowance for small business, and allow small businesses to deduct an increased level of capital purchases from their taxes.

Feinstein Amendment No. 515, to express the sense of the Senate regarding permanent extension of research credit.

Metzenbaum Amendment No. 517, to strike the provisions requiring civil penalties for violations of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA).

Inouye Amendment No. 529, to express the sense of the Senate with respect to the deduction on business meals and entertainment.

Gorton Modified Amendment No. 532, to eliminate the imposition after 1993 of the 4.3 cents deficit reduction rate on aviation fuel.

Rockefeller Amendment No. 533, to eliminate provisions relating to payment for indirect costs of medical education, extension of 10 percent reduction in payments for capital-related costs of inpatient hospital services, payments for hospice care, and charges to payment formulas for certain outpatient hospital services.

McCain/Inouye Amendment No. 537, to provide tax credits for Indian investment and employment.

Sasser (for Wofford/Specter) Amendment No. 539, to extend the authority to collect certain recreational and commercial user fees.

Sasser (for Breaux/Wallop) Amendment No. 540, to restore 2.5 cents of the Highway Trust Fund financing rate to the Aquatic Resources Trust Fund.

Lieberman Amendment No. 541, to express the sense of the Senate relating to the establishment of enterprise empowerment zones.

SENATE BILLS REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

S. 1134*—Continued

Brown Amendment No. 549, to transfer the 4.3 cent deficit reduction rate to the Highway Trust Fund or the Airport and Airway Trust Fund, respectively.

Bumpers Amendment No. 545, to allow States the option to provide that certain payments under Aid to Families With Dependent Children (ADIF) are conditioned on receipt of immunizations.

Lieberman/Chafee Amendment No. 560, to express the sense of the Senate that extension of qualified mortgage bonds be permanent.

Bumpers Amendment No. 561, to strike certain medicaid immunization provisions and provisions relating to the central bulk purchasing program for pediatric vaccines and insert provisions relating to medicaid reimbursement of vaccine manufacturers.

Rejected:

Nickles Amendment No. 508, to eliminate the transportation fuels tax and the imposition of the 4.3 cents deficit reduction rate.

Lott Amendment No. 516, to eliminate the increase in the taxation of social security benefits.

Kerrey Amendment No. 518, to establish a National Health Care Trust Fund.

DeConcini Amendment No. 531, to increase the threshold levels that apply for determining whether a taxpayer is subject to tax on 85 percent of such taxpayer's social security benefits and reduce the threshold level for the surtax.

McConnell Amendment No. 547, to strike the section increasing the Presidential election campaign fund check-off.

McCain/Brown Amendment No. 519; to restore to the social security trust funds the revenues resulting from the aggregate increase in tax liabilities attributable to the amendments made to section 86 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Sasser Amendment No. 510, to create a mechanism to monitor and control direct spending programs. Subsequently, a point of order that the amendment was non-germane was sustained, and the amendment thus fell.

Roth Amendment No. 525, to limit the tax rate for certain small businesses by exempting active trade or business income reinvested or retained in a small business or family farm from the increase in individual tax rates and the Medicare hospital insurance wage tax. Subsequently, a point of order that the amendment was in violation of the Congressional Budget Act was sustained, and the amendment thus fell.

Dole Amendment No. 536, to establish all changes in revenues contained in this bill which raise revenues, shall cease to be effective, and the tax rates shall revert to the status quo ante this bill, on September 30, 1998. Subsequently, a point of order that the amendment was in violation of Section 310(b) of the Congressional Budget Act was sustained, and the amendment thus fell.

Graham Amendment No. 548, to eliminate the reduction of payment updates for inpatient hospital services, the reduction in payment for indirect costs of medical education, the extension of medicare-dependent small rural hospital payments, the reduction in skilled nursing facility cost limits, the changes in payment for hospice care, and the changes to payment formulas for certain outpatient hospital services, and to pay for the provisions eliminated. Subsequently, a point of order that the Amendment was in violation of Section 310(d)(2) of the Congressional Budget Act was sustained, and the amendment thus fell.

Bryan/Reid Amendment No. 551, to repeal the section 936 credit and to express the sense of the Senate that the resulting increase in revenues be used to limit the reductions in Medicare. Subsequently, a point of order that the amendment was non-germane was sustained, and the amendment thus fell.

Bumpers Amendment No. 545, to allow the States the option to provide that certain payments under Aid to Families With Dependent Children are conditioned on receipt of immunizations. Subsequently, a point of order that the amendment was non-germane was not sustained.

Burns Amendment No. 558, to establish that all changes in revenues contained in the bill which raise revenues, shall become effective no earlier than the date of enactment. Subsequently, a point of order that the amendment was in violation of the Congressional Budget Act was sustained, and the amendment thus fell.

Withdrawn:

Reid Amendment No. 553, to amend title XVIII of the Social Security Act to increase the inpatient hospital deductible to $2,000 for any individual whose annual adjusted gross income equals or exceeds $100,000 ($125,000 in the case of an individual filing a joint return).

June 25, 1993—Senate insisted on its amendment, requested a conference with the House thereon, and the Chair appointed the following conferees on the part of the Senate: Committee on Finance: Senators Moynihan, Baucus, Bradley, Mitchell, Riegle, Rockefeller, Packwood, Dole, Roth, Danforth, and Chafee.

HOUSE BILLS REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

H.R. 2739*

Oct. 18, 1993

To amend the National Airport and Airway Improvement Act of 1982 to authorize appropriations for fiscal years 1994, 1995, 1996, and for other purposes.

Oct. 18, 1993—Referred to the Senate Commerce Committee.

H.R. 3167

Oct. 18, 1993

To extend the emergency unemployment compensation program, to establish a system of worker profiling and for other purposes.

Oct. 15, 1993—Passed by the House.

Oct. 21, 1993—Placed on the Senate Calendar.

Oct. 25, 1993—During consideration of this measure the Senate took the following actions under Finance Committee jurisdiction:

Rejected:

Hutchison Amendment No. 1081, to repeal the retroactive application of the income, estate, and gift tax rates made by the budget reconciliation act and reduce administrative expenses for agencies by $3,000,000,000 for each of the fiscal years 1994, 1995, and 1996. (By 50 yeas to 44 nays, 2 voting present (Vote No. 327), three-fifths of those Senators duly chosen and sworn not having voted in the affirmative, Senate rejected a motion to waive certain provisions of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 with respect to this amendment). Subsequently, a point of order that the amendment was in violation of section 311(a)(2) of the Congressional Budget Act was sustained, and the amendment was ruled out of order.

A point of order was made that the bill was in violation of Section 12(c) of the Budget Resolution for fiscal year 1994 and, by 59 yeas to 38 nays (Vote No. 328), three-fifths of those Senators duly chosen and sworn not having voted in the affirmative, Senate rejected a motion to waive the aforementioned section with respect to consideration of the bill.

Oct. 27, 1993—Senate resumed consideration of this bill taking action on amendments proposed thereto under Finance Committee jurisdiction, as follows:

Adopted:

Brown/Cohen Amendment No. 1086, to exclude individuals whose taxable income for 1992 exceeds $120,000 from eligibility for extended benefits. (By 52 yeas to 43 nays (Vote No. 336).)

Other action taken:

By voice vote, Senate agreed to a motion to reconsider the vote (Vote No. 328), by which Senate rejected a motion to waive section 12(c) of the Budget Resolution for fiscal year 1994 with respect to consideration of the bill.

By 61 yeas to 39 nays (Vote No. 334), three-fifths of those Senators duly chosen and sworn having voted in the affirmative, Senate agreed to a motion to waive section 12(c) of the Budget Resolution for fiscal year 1994 with respect to consideration of the bill. Subsequently, a point of order that the bill was in violation of the Budget Resolution was not sustained, and the point of order fell.

By 36 yeas to 61 nays (Vote No. 335), three-fifths of those Senators duly chosen and sworn not having voted in the affirmative, Senate rejected a motion to waive the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 and section 12(c) of the Budget Resolution for fiscal year 1994 with respect to consideration of Bumpers Modified Amendment No. 1084, to repeal the retroactive income, estate, and gift tax increase and compensate for the lost revenue by terminating the Space Station program. Subsequently, a point of order that the amendment was in violation of section 311(a)(2) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 was sustained, and the amendment thus fell.

Upon the results of Vote 335 (listed above), Dorgan Amendment No. 1085 (to Amendment No. 1084), to lower the discretionary spending caps to take into account the termination of the Space Station, also fell.

By 46 yeas to 51 nays (Vote No. 338), three-fifths of those Senators duly chosen and sworn not having voted in the affirmative, Senate rejected a motion to waive the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 with respect to consideration of McCain Amendment No. 1088, to amend title II of the Social Security Act to eliminate the earnings test for individuals who have attained retirement age. Subsequently, a point of order that the amendment was in violation of section 302(f)(2) of the Congressional Budget Act was sustained, and the amendment thus fell.

Oct. 28, 1993—Passed by the Senate after taking action on amendments under Finance Committee jurisdiction:

Rejected:

Simpson (for Nickles/Shelby) Amendment No. 1089, to prohibit the consideration of any retroactive tax increase unless three-fifths of all Senators duly chosen and sworn waive the prohibition by roll call vote.

Senate insisted on its amendments, requested a conference with the House thereon, and the chair appointed the following conferees: Senators Moynihan, Baucus, and Packwood.

Nov. 20, 1993—Conference Report agreed to in the Senate (H. Rept. 103-333).

BILL SIGNED

Nov. 23, 1993—Signed by the President.

AMENDMENTS WITHIN FINANCE COMMITTEE'S JURISDICTION, BY AUTHOR

Mr. Dorgan/Mrs. Feingold

S. Con. Res. 63 Amdt. 1564 Mar. 23, 1993
 Expressing the sense of the Senate that domestic producers should not be asked to continue to bear an unfair share of the Federal income tax burden compared to foreign-controlled competitors and that Congress should move to close tax loopholes that subsidize companies that move their plants outside the United States and that allow foreign corporations to do business in the United States and avoid paying their fair share of taxes.

S. 1134 Amdt. 536 June 24, 1993
 To establish all changes in revenues contained in this bill which raise revenues, shall cease to be effective, and the tax rates shall revert to the status quo ante this bill, on September 30, 1998. Subsequently, a point of order that the amendment was in violation of Section 310(b) of the Congressional Budget Act was sustained, and the amendment thus fell.

Mr. Domenici

S. 920 Amdt. 67 Mar. 3, 1993
 Expressing the sense of the Senate that until the President has submitted the budget required by Section 300 of the Congressional Budget Act, no Concurrent Resolution on the Budget should be considered.

Mr. Dorgan
