

EXTENDING FOR 2 YEARS THE EXISTING AUTHORITY OF THE
SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY IN RESPECT OF TRANSFERS OF DISTILLED SPIRITS FOR CERTAIN PURPOSES

JULY 2, 1956.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. BYRD, from the Committee on Finance, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H. R. 11714]

The Committee on Finance, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 11714) to extend for 3 years the existing authority of the Secretary of the Treasury in respect to transfers of distilled spirits for purposes deemed necessary to meet the requirements of the national defense, having considered the same, report favorably thereon with amendments and recommend that the bill as amended do pass.

The committee amendments to H. R. 11714 are as follows:

(1) Amend the title to read as follows:

A bill to extend for two years the existing authority of the Secretary of the Treasury in respect of transfers of distilled spirits for certain purposes.

(2) Strike "July 11, 1959" and insert "July 11, 1958".

I. GENERAL STATEMENT

Section 5217 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 authorizes the transfer of distilled spirits between alcohol plants and registered distilleries or internal revenue, or industrial alcohol, bonded warehouses under certain circumstances. Subsection (b) of this section also permits the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate temporarily to waive the application of any of the internal revenue laws relating to distilled spirits, except those imposing tax under certain circumstances. Although your committee has determined that subsection (b) has not been utilized during the past 5 years, it is recommended that the 2-year extension also be applicable to subsection (b) in order that it may be available as standby authority in the event that emergency conditions involving national defense should arise. Under present law the authority of the Secretary or his delegate to permit these transfers, or to waive the application of these internal-revenue laws expires as of July 11, 1956. This bill extends this authority for 2 additional years instead of 3 additional years as provided in the House bill.

This bill is reported unanimously by the Finance Committee.

In compliance with subsection (4) of rule XXIX of the Standing Rules of the Senate, changes in existing law made by the bill, H. R. 11714, as reported, are shown as follows (existing law proposed to be omitted is enclosed in black brackets, new matter is printed in italic, existing law in which no change is proposed is shown in roman).
