

To the Honorable Members of Senate finance,

The only solution to tax reform is a simplification of the current tax system by implementing a two tier flat tax. Any other solution would be a waste of time. Closing a few loop-holes is not going to accomplish anything and adding a few more hundred contradictory rules and regulations will simply make the current system more onerous and untenable.

Jeffrey C Bernard, representing self

