COMMITTEE PROCEDURE

SEC. 133. (a) Each standing committee of the Senate and the House of Representatives (except the Committees on Appropriations) shall fix regular weekly, biweekly, or monthly meeting days for the transaction of business before the committee, and additional meetings may be called by the chairman as he may deem necessary.

(b) Each such committee shall keep a complete record of all committee action. Such record shall include a record of the votes on any question on which a record vote is demanded.

(c) It shall be the duty of the chairman of each such committee to report or cause to be reported promptly to the Senate or House of Representatives, as the case may be, any measure approved by his committee and to take or cause to be taken necessary steps to bring the matter to a vote.

(d) No measure or recommendation shall be reported from any such committee unless a majority of the committee were actually present.

(e) Each such standing committee shall, so far as practicable, require all witnesses appearing before it to file in advance written statements of their proposed testimony, and to limit their oral presentations to brief summaries of their argument. The staff of each committee shall prepare digests of such statements for the use of committee members.

(f) All hearings conducted by standing committees or their subcommittees shall be open to the public, except executive sessions for marking up bills or for voting or where the committee by a majority vote orders an executive session.

COMMITTEE POWERS

SEC. 134. (a) Each standing committee of the Senate, including any subcommittee of any such committee, is authorized to hold such hearings, to sit and act at such times and places during the sessions, recesses, and adjourned periods of the Senate, to require by subpoena or otherwise the attendance of such witnesses and the production of such correspondence, books, papers, and documents, to take such testimony and to make such expenditures (not in excess of $10,000 for each committee during any Congress) as it deems advisable. Each such committee may make investigations into any matter within its jurisdiction, may report such hearings as may be had by it, and may employ stenographic assistance at a cost not exceeding 25 cents per hundred words. The expenses of the committee shall be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate upon vouchers approved by the chairman.

AMENDMENTS
1093 X (Con.)	H.R. 11970	No. 1 July 19, 1962. (A)	(Engle, Morse, Kuchel, and Tower.) Exempts any domestic fruit or tree nut commodity from duty reductions in trade agreements when 5 percent or less of that commodity is exported and when the United States accounts for less than 50 percent of the world supply.	Amendments rejected—Continued No. 30 (9-17-62-K) (voice vote, Congressional Record, pp. 18724-5). No. 33 (9-17-62-N) (record vote, 25-55, Congressional Record, pp. 18698-703). No. 34 (9-17-62-O) (record vote, 13-65, Congressional Record, pp. 18673-6). No. 35 (9-17-62-P) (record vote, 20-63, Congressional Record, pp. 18712-22). No. 36 (9-17-62-Q) (division vote—Congressional Record, pp. 18723-4). No. 38 (9-17-62-S) (record vote, 23-58, Congressional Record, pp. 18687-92). Dirksen floor amendment—3-year extension instead of 5 years (record vote, 28-56, Congressional Record, pp. 18725-7). Scott floor amendment—reserving from trade negotiations such items as are produced by industries which are disadvantaged in international competition by Government policies (division vote—Congressional Record, pp. 18729-30). Byrd floor amendment—providing that unemployment compensation paid under this act would be paid at rates prevailing in respective States where payments are made (record vote, 31-51, Congressional Record, pp. 18692-8). Prouty floor amendment—requiring President in reporting to Congress to give synopsis of recommendations made to him by U.S. Tariff Commission (record vote, 21-54, Congressional Record, pp. 18730-2). Sept. 19, 1962.—Senate insisted on its amendments, asked for conference, and appointed the following conferees: Messrs. Byrd of Virginia, Kerr, Long of Louisiana, Smathers, Williams of Delaware, Carlson, and Curtis. Sept. 20, 1962.—House agreed to conference named the following as conferees: Messrs. Mills, King of California, Boggs, Keogh, Mason, Byrnes of Wisconsin, and Baker. Oct. 2, 1962.—Conference committee reached agreement retaining all Senate amendments with following exceptions: Modified Senate amendment 4 deleting statement of purpose No. 3 and retaining No. 4; rejected Senate amendments 6, 7, 13, and 14 relating to special provisions concerning European Economic Community; rejected Senate amendment 21 precluding President from extending most-favor-nation treatment to products of Poland and Yugoslavia; rejected Senate amendment 22 requiring Special Representative for Trade Negotiations to be chief representative of United States only for general multilateral negotiations; rejected Senate amendment 34 relating to "unjustifiable" foreign import restrictions impairing value of tariff commitments made to United States by foreign country; and rejected Senate amendment 91, relating to additional authority to increase tariffs and impose quotas. (H. Rept. 2518.) Oct. 4, 1962.—House accepted conference report. Oct. 4, 1962.—Senate accepted conference report. Oct. 11, 1962.—Signed by the President. (Public Law 87-794.)
			No. 2 Aug. 2, 1962 (D)		(Bush, Allott, Bennett, Capehart, Hickey, Saltonstall, Thurmond and Tower.) Assures true reciprocity in concessions; limits negotiations to principal suppliers; requires that foreign concessions to the United States be extended to Japan; clarifies and tightens the general rules for operation of the trade agreement program; establishes a "peril point" procedure generally similar to that in present act; permits the withdrawal of concessions made in the 80 percent category when the 80 percent rule no longer applies; limits the authority to remove duties which are 5 percent or less; limits the removal of duties on tropical products to those found by the U.S. Tariff Commission to be noncompetitive; limits concessions unless the recipient country gives equal access to U.S. exports of like or similar items; revises, clarifies and strengthens the escape clause; broadens the opportunity of Congress to review certain actions under the escape clause; and conforms adjustment assistance to the remedies in present law.
			No. 3 Aug. 2, 1962 (B)		(Muskie, Bartlett, Chavez, Cotton, Murphy, Dodd, Pastore, Pell and Wiley.) Grants President authority to negotiate special agreements with low-wage countries to allow them an orderly share of the U.S. market without injuring domestic industries.
			No. 4 Aug. 3, 1962 (B)		(Bartlett and Magnuson.) Provides for the President to withhold or withdraw concessions to any country which engages or permits its nationals to engage in practices which conflict with U.S. conservation principles or interfere with or harass U.S. flag fishing vessels.
			No. 5 Aug. 7, 1962 (A)		(Javits.) Provides that the most substantial concessions are granted on products of the strongest U.S. industries.
			No. 6 Aug. 7, 1962 (B)		(Javits.) Countries obtaining concessions from the United States must extend most-favored-nation treatment to underdeveloped nations.
			No. 7 Aug. 7, 1962 (C)		(Javits.) Expresses the sense of Congress that the President should negotiate for the submission of reports by other countries on their progress in raising wage and living standards.
			No. 8 Aug. 7, 1962 (D)		(Javits.) Provides for retaliation when countries infringe on U.S. patents, copyrights, and trademarks.
			No. 9 Aug. 7, 1962 (E)		(Javits.) Provides for termination date on assistance to firms and workers.
			No. 10 Aug. 7, 1962 (F)		(Javits.) Provides for detailed report to be submitted by the President on expenditures and commitments under the adjustment assistance section.
