EXTRACT FROM THE LEGISLATIVE REORGANIZATION ACT OF 1946, PUBLIC LAW 601, 79th CONGRESS, AS AMENDED

Standing Committees of the Senate

SEC. 102. Rule XXV of the Standing Rules of the Senate is amended to read as follows:

"RULE XXV

"Standing Committees

"(1) The following standing committees shall be appointed at the commencement of each Congress, with leave to report by bill or otherwise:

"(h) Committee on Finance, to consist of 17 Senators, to which committee shall be referred all proposed legislation, messages, petitions, memorials, and other matters relating to the following subjects:

"1. Revenue measures generally.

"2. The bonded debt of the United States.

"3. The deposit of public moneys.

"4. Customs, collection districts, and ports of entry and delivery.

"5. Reciprocal trade agreements.

"6. Transportation of dutiable goods.

"7. Revenue measures relating to the insular possessions.

"8. Tariffs and import quotas, and matters related thereto.

"9. National social security.

"10. Veterans' measures generally.

"11. Pensions of all the wars of the United States, general and special.

"12. Life insurance issued by the Government on account of service in the Armed Forces.

"13. Compensation of veterans."

COMMITTEE PROCEDURE

SEC. 133. (a) Each standing committee of the Senate and the House of Representatives (except the Committees on Appropriations) shall fix regular weekly, biweekly, or monthly meeting days for the transaction of business before the committee, and additional meetings may be called by the chairman as he may deem necessary.

(b) Each such committee shall keep a complete record of all committee action. Such record shall include a record of the votes on any question on which a record vote is demanded.

(c) It shall be the duty of the chairman of each such committee to report or cause to be reported promptly to the Senate or House of Representatives, as the case may be, any measure approved by his committee and to take or cause to be taken necessary steps to bring the matter to a vote.

(d) No measure or recommendation shall be reported from any such committee unless a majority of the committee were actually present.

(e) Each such standing committee shall, so far as practicable, require all witnesses appearing before it to file in advance written statements of their proposed testimony, and to limit their oral presentations to brief summaries of their argument. The staff of each committee shall prepare digests of such statements for the use of committee members.

(f) All hearings conducted by standing committees or their subcommittees shall be open to the public, except executive sessions for marking up bills or for voting or where the committee by a majority vote orders an executive session.

COMMITTEE POWERS

SEC. 134. (a) Each standing committee of the Senate, including any subcommittee of any such committee, is authorized to hold such hearings, to sit and act at such times and places during the sessions, recesses, and adjourned periods of the Senate, to require by subpoena or otherwise the attendance of such witnesses and the production of such correspondence, books, papers, and documents, to take such testimony and to make such expenditures (not in excess of $10,000 for each committee during any Congress) as it deems advisable. Each such committee may make investigations into any matter within its jurisdiction, may report such hearings as may be had by it, and may employ stenographic assistance at a cost not exceeding 25 cents per hundred words. The expenses of the committee shall be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate upon vouchers approved by the chairman.

(Encourages U.S. exports by taxing less of the income of an export trade corporation prior to its repatriation and by allowing greater flexibility in investments in export trade assets and with respect to export promotion expenses.)	Oct. 24, 1967.—Statement by Senator Smathers introducing this bill (Congressional Record S15168). Oct. 25, 1967.—Referred to Bureau of the Budget and Department of the Treasury.
279	S. 2600	Mr. Harris (for himself, Mr. Carlson, and Mr. Curtis). Oct. 31, 1967.	To amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to provide for the valuation of a decedent's interest in a closely held business for estate tax purposes. (Permits the assets of a closely held business to be valued for estate tax purposes (at the election of the executor) by reference to its adjusted basis or its operating value, whichever is higher. This valuation rule would be an alternative to the present rule which looks primarily to the assets' fair market value. Generally, the proposed alternative would produce a lower estate tax valuation.)	Oct. 31, 1967.—Statement by Senator Harris introducing this bill (Congressional Record S15577). Nov. 2, 1967.—Referred to Bureau of the Budget and Department of the Treasury.

			AMENDMENTS
		No. 1 July 11, 1967 (224)	(Morton) Relates to spinoff by a life insurance company of the stock of a subsidiary life insurance company without imposition of so-called phase III tax imposed by Life Insurance Act of 1959.	(1) permits mortgage guaranty insurance companies to deduct State-required addition to contingency reserves up to 50 percent of earned premiums if amount of tax benefit is re-invested in special non-interest bearing U.S. bonds;
		No. 2 Aug. 4, 1967 (241)	(Williams of Delaware) Provides a capital gains tax in the case of a divestiture by a bank holding company on that portion of a stockholders' distribution in excess of his original investment.	(2) permits universities privilege of providing unfunded retirement programs to employees, if employees are granted option of participating under funded program; and extends $5,000 death benefit exclusion under income tax and estate and gift tax exemption;
		No. 3 Aug. 4, 1967 (242)	(Prouty) Restores the full deduction for income tax purposes of all medical and drug expenses for persons aged 65 and over.	(3) provides coordination of investment credit carryback with net operating loss carryback; and (4) permits a parent and subsidiary corporation both of which are life insurance companies, to reorganize as brother-sister corporations under holding company arrangement without incurring Phase III tax liability imposed by Life Insurance Company Tax Act of 1959. (S. Rept. 490.)
	No. 4 Sept. 18, 1967 (321)	(Hollings) Similar to S. 1796—fixes quotas on textile articles of natural or man-made fibers, based on average imports of such articles during the 6-year period 1961 through 1966. Negotiating authority granted President to enter into trade agreements.	Nov. 2, 1967.—Report from Bureau of the Budget on Amendment 321. (Suggests deferment until report from Tariff Commission requested by the President has been received.) Nov. 6, 1967.—Report from the Department of the Treasury on Amendment 321.
