

Only citizens of the United States are eligible for Earned Income Tax Credits.

Any college athlete that receives financial compensation for participation in college sponsored athletic events shall be issued a 1099 form and is responsible for including that compensation as income and paying taxes on it.