Hi Maria!

I know you are busy preparing for the arrival of the group next week. What will be the procedure once they arrive in Russia? Will you be there to greet them? Should they look for a sign with their name on it? I ask because three attendees (Brownell and the Liberatores) will be arriving separate from the main group and I want to be sure they have the proper instructions for the pick-up at the airport.

Thank you,

Nick
