Dear Dave,

It is so nice that you invite me to the NRA Winter Board Meeting! It is a great honor for me to be there!

But there is my question: will it be all right if I arrive there on Thursday, 8th of January afternoon and leave early morning on Sunday 11th of January? And is it still possible to find the room in the hotel for me to stay?

I will see Senator Torshin right after my arrival to Moscow and of course I will tell him all best wishes from you!

Sincerely,

Maria

Maria,

Wonderful to hear from you! Hope you had a great Christmas.

I will be leaving on the morning of the 7th for the NRA Winter Board Meeting in Birmingham, Alabama. It runs through Saturday and if you would like to attend as my guest you would be welcome to join us.

After that I must fly to Arkansas and then California for a Republican National Committee meeting in San Diego. I will be back that next Saturday evening. Can meet before I leave , in Birmingham or when I return to DC.

If you see him, please pass along my greetings to Senator Torshin .

Dave

Good afternoon, dear David,

First, accept my most sincere congratulations on Christmas and Happy New Year!

I really hope that you are fine. This year I'm going to visit the NRA Annual Meeting in Nashville in April. But I need your advices ahead of the meeting on a very important matter.

The OSA company of Russia is the maker of "traumatic guns" (these fire rubber bullets, electronically). They would very much like to build a manufacturing plant in America to make and sell their products in the U.S. Maybe even make partner with American gun company for this purpose.

I have accumulated so many different topics that I would very much like to discuss with you! Due to fast changing political and economic situation in Russia,

I will be visiting the United States the first two weeks of January on several topics. If you have time, I could meet you in Washington, DC to talk with you about your opinions on these important things.

Have a good day!

Sincerely,

Maria Butina
