Nick and David –

I reached out to Maria during SHOT Show for her input on inviting a delegation from Russia. A quick reminder, while in Russia, I did publically invite all of these people to attend the NRA's 2016 Annual Meeting. Maria has been gracious enough to list these individuals with bios and offer to be the point of contact in Russia.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Listed below are the names of those we extended invitations to. From Maria's point of view Torshin, Gusev and Butina are most likely to accept. Vadim might make the trip depending on family and business obligations; Igor is an unknown at this point.

What are the suggested next steps?

the member of Russian Social Chamber the member of the Civilian Rights Council of the President of Russia the head of the journalistic department of the International Moscow University

Mr. Gusev was born in 1949 in Moscow. He graduated from The Moscow State Geological University.

From 1983 Gusev became the chief editor of the USSR newspaper “Moskovsky Komsomoletz”. Nine years later during the privatization after the USSR collapsed he became an owner of the newspaper and founded a holding company named in honor of the newspaper. Today the company publishes 84 different newspapers and magazines in 12 countries of the world with total circulation over 28 000 000 copies. Thanks to the hobby of the owner in hunting in the holding there are also 6 magazines about hunting and fishing in Russia.

From 1991 Gusev was elected as the chairman of Russian Journalists Union.

He also was a minister of The Ministry of Press and Information of Moscow. In 2005 he was appointed a member of the Russian Public Chamber by president Vladimir Putin’s special decree. He is the chairman of the Commission for Communications, Information Policy and Freedom of Speech in Russian Public Chamber.

In February of 2012 he became one of the confidants in Vladimir Putin’s presidential campaign.

In November 2012 by Putin’s special decree he was appointed as a member the Civilian Rights Council of The President of Russia.

Mr. Gusev is one of the charitable leaders of The English Club of Russia ¹.

Gusev is also the member of the Arts Council of the main Russian state film studio "Mosfilm". Gusev wrote several plays.

Gusev has several awards from Russian and Moscow governments in journalism.

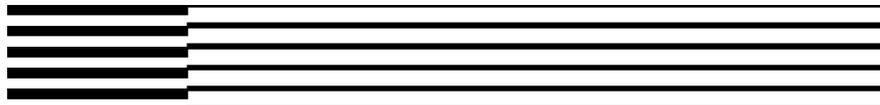

Mr. Gusev is a famous hunter and golf player. He is the president of Moscow hunting club “Safari Club”, and life member of SCI.

Gusev founded his private trophy house. In his collection he has more then 500 different hunting trophies from all over the world.

Married, five children.

¹ The English Club - the first gentlemen’s private club established in tsar’s times of Russian Empire. The English club was considered as the most influential think tank before the revolution. Many of the members of The Club are Russian princes, famous writers and politicians. For example, Alexander Pushkin was among them. Till the middle of the XIX century The English Club had only the relatives of the tsar’s family but since the second half of the XIX century the majority belonged to the richest businessmen of The Russian Empire. In 1917 The Club was closed and began its activity again only in 2012.
