1 OPENING STATEMENT OF HON. RON WYDEN, A U.S. SENATOR FROM 2 OREGON, CHAIRMAN, COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

3

4 The Chairman. The Finance Committee will come to 5 order. We meet today to consider a pending nomination
6 for the Committee, Mr. David Johnson. We're going to 7 use the statement now to make statements on the nominee.

8 I'm going to make a statement, followed by my 9 colleague from Idaho, then followed by any other Finance
10 member who wishes to make a statement. At that point, 11 if we have a quorum, which I do not believe we will 12 have, we would proceed to the vote.

13 If we don't have a quorum, we'll recess until the 14 next roll call vote on the Senate floor, when the 15 Committee will reconvene off the floor to have the vote.
16 Senator Crapo and I have talked about this, and this is 17 an acceptable process for both sides.

18 So, my very brief statement before I yield to my 19 colleague, I would say first, a quick set of comments
20 with respect to Mr. Johnson's background. This is a 21 non-partisan down the middle nominee for a position that 22 requires exactly that type of individual.

23 Mr. Johnson currently serves as the Assistant
24 Inspector General for Investigations at the Department
25 of Veterans Affairs, which is a key oversight role at

1 the second largest federal agency. He previously served
2 as a federal prosecutor in a few different positions.
3 That includes several years as Assistant Chief in the 4 Fraud Section of the Criminal Division of the Department
5 of Justice.

6 He also served as Assistant United States Attorney
7 and Health Care Fraud Coordinator at the U.S. Attorney's 8 Office for the District of Columbia.

9 Independent oversight of the IRS, in my view, is 10 in the best interest of all our taxpayers. This is a
11 challenging job by any measure. The Treasury Department 12 has a separate inspector general. The tax issues and 13 the IRS require their own special focus.

14 TIGTA, as it's known in the tax policy vernacular,
15 is all about good government and protecting taxpayer
16 dollars at the IRS. It helps improve tax administration
17 and fights waste, fraud and abuse. Those are priorities
18 for members on both sides of the dais here.

19 The Committee depends on TIGTA to provide the 20 public with unbiased information and nonpartisan
21 oversight, to help us do our jobs. It is my view that 22 Mr. Johnson is highly qualified, and I thought we had a
23 very helpful hearing a few weeks ago.

24 I want it understood that I strongly support his 25 nomination. I would urge all my colleagues to do the

1 same.

2 Let me turn it over now to Senator Crapo. If 3 other colleagues wish to make opening remarks, they can.
4 Otherwise, we'll adjourn until our vote off the floor.

5 Senator Crapo?

1 OPENING STATEMENT OF HON. MIKE CRAPO, A U.S. SENATOR
2 FROM IDAHO

3
4 Senator Crapo. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.
5 Mr. Johnson has been nominated to serve as Inspector
6 General for Tax Administration at the Department of 7 Treasury. I agree with the Chairman. Mr. Johnson has 8 strong qualifications and oversight experience, and I
9 appreciate his service at the Department of Veterans
10 Affairs and his willingness to serve today.

11 I was encouraged to hear Mr. Johnson's commitment
12 to distinguishing allegations of waste, fraud, and abuse
13 from disagreements in policy, ensuring that TIGTA holds
14 accountable any individual who unlawfully discloses
15 taxpayer information, and providing the Senate Finance
16 Committee with timely and thorough updates of 17 investigations permitted by law.

18 I was also encouraged to hear that Mr. Johnson and 19 I share common ground on the need for the IRS to keep 20 taxpayer information confidential, and for personal
21 information to not be used against taxpayers to advance
22 political agendas.

23 However, that being said, given that the new 24 Congress will be sworn in only less than month from 25 today, and the new administration will take office just

1 shortly thereafter, it's my opinion that these newly 2 elected officials deserve the opportunity themselves to 3 evaluate this appointment. Therefore today, I will not 4 be able to support Mr. Johnson's nomination.

5 That said, I look forward to working with Mr.
6 Johnson, if he is confirmed, in addressing the concerns
7 that my colleagues and I have raised throughout this 8 process, and ensuring that TIGTA continues to provide 9 essential oversight of the IRS and our nation's system.

10 The Chairman. Thank you, Senator Crapo. So now
11 procedurally, we need to ask about objections at this 12 point. Unless there is an objection, the Committee will 13 recess and reconvene to vote on the nominations
14 following the first vote today at 11:30 a.m. off the 15 Senate floor in the President's Room, which is number 16 219.

17 Without objection, it is so ordered. The 18 Committee stands in recess.

19 [Whereupon, at 10:10 a.m., the meeting was 20 recessed.]

1 The open executive session was reconvened,
2 pursuant to notice, on Thursday, December 5, 2024, at
