The Chairman. There will be other members of the committee coming and going from time to time this morning. The first order of business will be the nomination of Charles E. Clapp, of Rhode Island, to be a judge of the United States Tax Court for a term expiring 15 years after he takes office. We have had the hearings on this nomination. There is not a quorum present, but I would suggest we poll members on each side. I know of no opposition to the nomination. Perhaps we can do that, Mr. DeArment.

Mr. DeArment. We will do that. I understand there is no objection of any kind.

The Chairman. Right. I understand there is no objection to that procedure.

The ITC nominations will not be taken up today. We have had the hearings on those nominations. The hearing record is open. They have been ^{given} ~~submitted~~ a number of questions in writing, and until we have the answers and a chance to review the ^m answers, ^{and hear from} ~~plus~~ any of the members ^{who} may wish to either recall the nominees or submit ^{other} questions, we will not take final action on those nominations.

(Whereupon, at 10:02 a.m., the hearing was concluded.)
