[H. Rept. No. 1266, 76th Cong., 1st sess.]

The Committee on Ways and Means, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 7263) to permit the importation free of duty of certain literature for distribution at the Golden Gate International Exposition of 1939, having had the same under consideration, report it back to the House without amendment and recommend that the bill do pass.

GENERAL STATEMENT

The purpose of H. R. 7263 is to extend the provisions of section 4 of Public Law No. 60, Seventy-sixth Congress, to the Golden Gate International Exposition of 1939, which already applies to the New York World's Fair of 1939.

Inadvertently, this was not done when H. R. 5287 (which became Public Law No. 60) was before the House.

This bill will merely allow the importation of certain tourist literature for gratuitous distribution at the San Francisco Exposition in the same manner as is already provided for the New York Fair.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW

In compliance with paragraph 2a of rule XIII of the rules of the House of Representatives, changes in existing law made by the bill are shown as follows (existing law is shown in roman, new matter proposed to be added by the bill is printed in italics):

"Sec. 4. Tourist literature containing scenic, historical, geographic, time table, travel, hotel, or similar information, chiefly with respect to places or travel facilities outside the continental United States, all the foregoing, if their entry is not prohibited, and if of bona fide foreign authorship and classifiable under paragraph 1410 of the Tariff Act of 1930, shall be admitted without payment of duty if imported for gratuitous distribution within the exhibits of foreign governments at the New York World's Fair, 1939, or at the Golden Gate International Exposition of 1939".
