9 SEC. 71002. SEAFOOD IMPORT MONITORING PROGRAM.

10 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

11 (1) It remains the policy of the United States
12 to take action to curtail the global trade in seafood
13 and seafood products derived from illegal, unre-14 ported, or unregulated fishing, including the links of 15 such trade to forced labor and transnational orga-16 nized illegal activity.

17 (2) The Federal Government and State authori-18 ties have implemented measures to prevent United 19 States persons from engaging in illegal, unreported, 20 or unregulated fishing, using forced labor in the pro-
21 duction of seafood, and fraudulently concealing rel-
22 evant information concerning the production of sea-23 food, including—

24 (A) enhanced enforcement activities by the 25 Coast Guard and effective enforcement by Fed-

1 eral and State authorities of criminal and civil 2 penalties;

3 (B) actions taken by the National Marine 4 Fisheries Service of the National Oceanic and 5 Atmospheric Administration to enhance 6 traceability of seafood produced in the United 7 States, including actions taken pursuant to divi-
8 sion B of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 9 2018 (Public Law 115–141; 132 Stat. 400) and 10 the Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation
11 and Management Act (16 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.);
12 and

13 (C) inspections undertaken by the Food
14 and Drug Administration and the Department 15 of Agriculture of aquaculture facilities in the 16 United States.

17 (3) Seafood that is the result of illegal, unre-18 ported, or unregulated fishing, forced labor, or 19 human trafficking may still enter United States
20 commerce as those conditions remain a severe prob-
21 lem in the global fisheries sector, as reflected in re-
22 ports and studies prepared by the United States
23 International Trade Commission (USITC), the 24 International Labour Organization (ILO), and the

1 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United 2 Nations (FAO).

3 (4) According to a study and model by the 4 USITC published in March 2021, nearly 11 percent
5 of total United States seafood imports and more 6 than 13 percent of United States imports caught at 7 sea in 2019 were derived from illegal, unreported, or 8 unregulated fishing.

9 (5) As recognized by the FAO, traceability of 10 fish and fishery products is critical for verifying the 11 integrity of a supply chain and ensures the quality 12 and safety of the fishery products of the supply 13 chain, the legality of such products, and that such 14 products originate from fisheries that are 15 sustainably managed.

16 (6) Effective implementation of the Agreement 17 on Port State Measures to Prevent, Deter, and 18 Eliminate Illegal, Unreported, and Unregulated
19 Fishing set forth by the Food and Agriculture Orga-
20 nization of the United Nations, done at Rome, Italy
21 November 22, 2009, and entered into force June 5, 22 2016, including the provisions of the agreement re-23 lating to cooperation, will be enhanced by ensuring 24 effective traceability of seafood imported into the 25 United States.

1 SEC. 73006. SENSE OF CONGRESS ON LEADERSHIP AT 2 WORLD TRADE ORGANIZATION.

3 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-4 ings:

5 (1) The United States had led the formation, as 6 well as reform, of rules governing the multilateral 7 trading system since World War II.

8 (2) The United States is a founding member of 9 the World Trade Organization (in this section re-10 ferred to as the “WTO”) and a key architect of the 11 organization.

12 (3) The United States secured important com-
13 mitments in the WTO to facilitate trade in goods
14 and services, to prevent the application of non-sci-15 entific restrictions on United States agriculture, and 16 to protect United States intellectual property.

17 (4) The United States uses the rules of the 18 WTO to benefit workers, farmers, fishers, and busi-19 nesses in the United States by facilitating access to 20 the 90 percent of the world’s consumers who live 21 outside the borders of the United States.

22 (5) The fundamental purpose of the WTO is to 23 create space for members to negotiate with each 24 other, and the WTO reserves to those members ex-25 clusively the right to negotiate and adopt rules that

1 reduce and eliminate trade barriers and discrimina-
2 tory treatment.

3 (6) The prompt settlement of disputes in which 4 a member of the WTO considers that its rights are 5 being impaired by the actions of another member is 6 essential to the functioning of the WTO and the 7 maintenance of a proper balance between the rights 8 and obligations of members.

9 (7) The WTO's dispute settlement function, in-10 cluding in particular the Appellate Body, has in-11 creasingly failed to enforce the rules of the WTO in 12 a timely manner, and has usurped the negotiating 13 prerogative of members by creating new obligations
14 and rights that are inconsistent with or not included 15 in the rules negotiated by members.

16 (8) The creation of those obligations and rights
17 undermines—

18 (A) the WTO's negotiating function by dis-
19 couraging members from making concessions;
20 and

21 (B) the WTO's dispute settlement function
22 by encouraging overuse of the process and un-23 dermining its legitimacy, including by pre-24 venting free market economies from responding

1 to globally trade distortive practices by non-2 market economies.

3 (9) The WTO does not have sufficient rules to 4 discipline the distortive economic policies of non-5 market economies, such as policies relating to excess 6 capacity and forced technology transfer, the special 7 treatment those economies afford to state-owned en-8 terprises, and their massive and opaque industrial 9 subsidies.

10 (10) There is long-standing bipartisan support 11 in Congress to reform the WTO to address those 12 failings.

13 (11) The current presidential administration, as 14 well as prior administrations, raised concerns about 15 the failings described in this subsection and have 16 made reform of the WTO a top priority of United 17 States trade policy.

18 (12) The United States urges WTO members to 19 work constructively with the United States to assess 20 the reasons why the existing WTO rules have proven 21 inadequate in order to create an atmosphere within 22 the WTO that is conducive to the development of 23 new rules less subject to jurisprudential drift.

24 (13) The guiding principle for reform of the 25 WTO, and the lens through which WTO members

1 should consider specific reform proposals, is the res-2 toration of the WTO's capability and capacity for 3 negotiation among members.

4 (14) The United States has achieved its trade 5 policy objectives through active leadership at the 6 WTO, and an absence of that leadership would be 7 filled by nonmarket economies that are hostile to a 8 host of United States interests.

9 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-10 gress that—

11 (1) while the United States finds value and use-12 fulness in the WTO, in order to fulfill the needs of 13 the United States and other free and open econo-
14 mies in the 21st century, significant reforms are 15 needed;

16 (2) the United States must therefore continue 17 to demonstrate leadership to achieve reforms that 18 restore the effectiveness of the WTO's—

19 (A) negotiating function;

20 (B) dispute settlement function so that it 21 transparently, efficiently, and fully enforces out-22 comes negotiated by members rather than 23 usurping their primacy by creating new rights 24 or obligations; and

1 (C) rules for special and differential treat-
2 ment to ensure those rules promote advance-3 ment for truly developing countries, rather than 4 becoming tools for globally competitive coun-
5 tries, like the People's Republic of China, to en-6 gage in protectionism and market distortions;

7 (3) the efforts to reform the negotiating func-
8 tion of the WTO should revitalize the negotiating 9 function by providing confidence to members that 10 the WTO operates according to the rules as nego-
11 tiated and adopted by members;

12 (4) a revitalized negotiating function must in-13 clude new rules that reflect the 21st century econ-
14 omy, further combat anticompetitive and protec-
15 tionist barriers, and ensure disputes are efficiently
16 resolved;

17 (5) the United States Trade Representative
18 should continue to lead efforts to work with WTO 19 members to pursue reforms at the WTO that—

20 (A) ensure the dispute settlement mecha-21 nism faithfully applies the rules adopted by 22 members, including by undertaking measures to 23 ensure the WTO's Appellate Body does not cre-
24 ate new rights and obligations;

1 (B) improve public confidence in dispute
2 settlement by promoting greater transparency
3 and efficiency in the conduct of proceedings;

4 (C) redress the consistent failure by cer-
5 tain members to satisfy their notification obli-
6 gations under various WTO agreements, includ-
7 ing through measures that strengthen account-
8 ability;

9 (D) ensure rules for special and differen-10 tial treatment are appropriately reserved for 11 countries whose state of development and global 12 competitiveness actually warrants such flexi-
13 bility;

14 (E) create new rules and structures that 15 can serve the interests of the United States
16 while promoting peace, prosperity, good govern-17 ance, transparency, effective operation of legal 18 regimes, the rule of law, and free enterprise;
19 and

20 (F) expand upon the trilateral negotiations
21 currently underway with Japan and the Euro-22 pean Union; and

23 (6) the United States Trade Representative
24 should explore and assess specific reform proposals, 25 including—

1 (A) pursuing plurilateral agreements that 2 further the interests of the United States while 3 limiting the benefits accruing to countries that 4 are not parties to those agreements;

5 (B) efforts to ensure that incorrect inter-
6 pretations by the Appellate Body, including 7 with respect to the Agreement on Safeguards,
8 the Agreement on Implementation of Article VI
9 of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade 10 1994, and the Agreement on Subsidies and 11 Countervailing Measures, are corrected, and not 12 to be deemed precedential;

13 (C) new rules and norms to address prac-
14 tices of nonmarket economies, such as practices
15 relating to state-owned enterprises, which cer-16 tain countries often utilize for objectives that 17 cause severe trade distortions; and 18 (D) better implementation of existing 19 rules, such as the prohibition in paragraph 4 of 20 Article XIV of the General Agreement on Tar-

21 iffs and Trade on currency manipulation, to en-
22 sure that those rules are effective to preserve 23 the rights of free market economies.
